

Face covering and physical distancing are required for unvaccinated persons

Indoors: Unvaccinated persons are required to wear a face covering and practice physical distancing, unless alone in an office or unit designated area while distancing.

Outdoors: Unvaccinated persons are required to wear a face covering if physical distancing is not feasible.